Reagan county qualifies individual for State Roundup

Sarra Settle will be representing Reagan County during the State 4-H Round up held in College Station. Sarra will be competing against several youth from all over the state of Texas during the State 4-H Round Up Wool Judging contest. Sarra competed in the D6 Wool and Mohair contest held in Ozona on April 9th. Her second place finish as an individual in the Wool contest gave her the eligibility to compete in the state contest to be held in June in College Station. If you see Sarra around school or town be sure to congratulate her on her great achievement.

State Horse Validation Due to County Extension Office May 1st

All individuals planning on competing at the District 6 horse show, need to be aware that all horses must be validated through the County Extension Office. All forms and a $10 validation fee per horse validated must be in the Reagan county office by May 2nd. If you have any questions or concerns please let me know by calling the office at 325-884-2335 or by reaching me on my cell phone at 325-812-5963. You can also email completed validation forms or questions directly to me at tjfrey@ag.tamu.edu.

Pipeline now available on the Web

The Reagan County Pipeline is now available on the Reagan County Extension Website. You can access and view the 4-H Newsletter by going to reagan-tx.tamu.edu. Once the site takes you to the home page click on links and find the Reagan County Pipeline. This will provide each 4-H member the opportunity to stay on top of what is happening in Reagan County and Texas 4-H. Each enrolled member will still receive the paper version of the Pipeline by mail.

If you have trouble finding or viewing the online version, please let us know at the office.

Summer 4-H Camps

Individuals interested in participating in 4-H sponsored camps throughout the summer need to be watching for enrollment forms and registration on 4-H connect. You can log on to your 4-H connect account by going to texas4-H.tamu.edu. If you have problems viewing or logging on to your account, please give us a call at the office and we can reset your password. All fees coincide with the camps and registration must be paid by check or credit card online through 4-H connect.

Junior High Leadership Lab

The West Region Junior High Leadership Lab will be held in June at Ft. Stockton. All interested youth who would like to attend need to come by the office or check 4-H connect for registration information. This year's Leadership Lab will take a look into Science, Engineering and Technology.
